Cambridge English: First for Schools

Lesson Plan: Speaking

This lesson plan accompanies Cambridge English: First for Schools 1 Speaking Test 4 Part 1

This lesson is suitable for students at the beginning, middle or towards the end of their Cambridge English: First for Schools course.

This lesson is also suitable for any upper intermediate course in order to practise giving extended answers to questions and develop oral communication skills.

Lesson Goals

- 1. To give learners practice in answering exam-style oral personal questions
2. To develop language which avoids giving one word answers

Table with 3 columns: Activity (see brackets for resources required), Time needed, Interaction. Rows include Warmer, Main activities, and Activity A.

Practice makes perfect!

USE SPEAKING EXAM PRACTICE

What difficulties do you think the person in picture 3 has in her working life?
What job is more rewarding (satisfying)? Why?
What personal qualities do you think are needed for each job?

Table with columns for Module taken (Academic, General Training), Mark 1, Mark 2, Band Score, and Reading Total. Rows 1-20.

Answer Key for Unit 3: Paper 3: Reading (Questions 1-20) and Paper 3: Writing (Questions 1-3).

Why or why not? What cuisines are most popular in your town? You must discuss this with your partner during the exam, so it is important to practice talking about the prompts, but also ask your partner for their opinion. In Part 4 you must do the same, so after the examiner asks you a question, you must say your answer, but then encourage your partner to answer the question too. Be sure to listen and respond to your partner. These materials have been designed to be printed double-sided and used as booklets. How do you feel about mind maps? Part 4: Studying Answer the following questions with your partner. Is studying important for you? It's more important to answer the questions than describe the pictures. Connect your ideas together with linking words (whereas, meanwhile, on the other hand, also, on top of that etc). Why or why not? Do you think we will have more or fewer libraries in the future? In the Cambridge First Certificate Speaking test there are 4 parts. Each question normally gets slightly more abstract and more difficult to answer. A casual, interesting conversation is always better than a forced, awkward one. Relax and do your best. Practise the full First Certificate Speaking exam with our Speaking Packs. You may need to answer a question individually or you may need to talk with your partner. Maintaining the interaction between you and your partner is key. Provided below are some Part 3 and 4 practice questions for B2 First (formally known as FCE). GET ALL CAMBRIDGE SPEAKING TESTS (PET, FCE, CAE): Get all 3 levels of Breakout English's Cambridge Speaking tests and save compared to buying individually. You should ask and answer questions to your partner while connecting your ideas together. Why? Some people say healthy food is more expensive than cheap food. Why or why not? Would you ever become a vegetarian? We're pleased to offer a free sample PDF of our B2 Speaking resource. This sample test has been written to closely replicate the Cambridge B2 First (FCE) Speaking exam experience and so each Speaking test follows the same structure and wording as official papers. Speak until the examiner interrupts you. In Part 4, follow the examiner's lead. You're not here to get any bonus points for memorisation. In Part 2, expect to get pictures that are a little bit strange. Don't describe your pictures too much. You are also asked a brief question about your partner's pictures. It's not enough to say eAAI agree eAA and then speak about something completely different. Don't make your decisions too quickly. Why? Would you want to join a new sport? Example of First (FCE) Speaking Part 1 Part 2 eAAA Long Turn In part 2 of FCE Speaking, you are asked to speak alone about a pair of pictures for about 1 minute each. For a list of typical FCE Speaking Part 1 topics and some chat cards, check out our Cambridge Speaking Part 1 post. FCE Listening part with explanations CAE Speaking Part 3 Sample Questions eAAA sample questions with useful phrases. Ask them questions and tell them if you agree or disagree with them. Comment on what your partner's ideas are. Get First (FCE) Speaking Sample Tests Breakout English offers 5 complete First (FCE) Speaking tests. In this part, you may be asked to answer a question individually, but you may also be encouraged to continue speaking together with your partner. The challenge for this part of the exam is to stay organised, use the best language possible and keep on speaking for the full minute. Why or why not? What effect do cell phones, computers, and TVs have on our health? Do you think people will become more or less healthy in the future? Why? Is fast food popular in your country? You can save any information in PDF for further use. The sample tests are designed to be exactly the same style, format and level as the real exam in order to get the best practice possible. The options are there as a guide, not a requirement. Always communicate with your partner. In Part 3 of this exam, you'll be given a prompt with a question and several solutions. Each part offers its own set of difficulties and challenges. B2 First Part 3 and 4 Practice Download Let's Start! Part 3: Studying Discuss this question with your partner Sample Answer: eAA Well, I personally love mind maps. Each test has an online version that calculates your score at the end and a print-friendly version. Practice makes perfect: Part 3: Small Town Part 4: Small Town What are some advantages of living in a small town? How about the downsides? What kinds of things can you do for entertainment in a small town? Are small towns better for old people or young people? This part of the test is your opportunity to collaborate with your partner and show your ability to interact in English. Example of First (FCE) Speaking Part 4 Tips and Tricks for First (FCE) Speaking Always give complete extended answers to all the questions. Why? Do you agree that studying is easier nowadays with the invention of the internet? CAE Speaking Part 1 sample questions with answers eAA Even though Part 1 of your CAE Speaking might seem easy, it never hurts to get more practice under your belt! First you speak about the question for 2 minutes together, then the examiner will give you 1 minute to make a decision the best/worst/most interesting option. CAE Speaking part 2 sample questions - complete with some useful phrases, be sure to return regularly, we are updating this further. Is studying important to you? Is it better to study with music or in silence? Why? When you're older, do you think you'll keep studying? You are given a diagram, which includes a question with 5 different ideas to discuss. Why? Read physical books or e-books? GET FIRST (FCE) SPEAKING TESTS: GET ALL CAMBRIDGE SPEAKING TESTS (PET, FCE, CAE): First Format (FCE) Speaking Part 1 - Interview Part 1 of the First Certificate is a short interview between candidates and examiner. The discussion lasts 4 minutes. Let's try a different topic: Part 3: Health Part 4: Health Do you consider yourself healthy?
